Writer of the week

Last week our writer of the week was

Maja Marsalik

Well done Maja, you drew part of the solar system and labelled it!

International Week

This week is international week. The country the Nursery has been given to study is Italy. We will be finding out lots by reading books, watching information clips and searching on the internet. Please encourage your child by researching at the library or at home too. On Tuesday children are invited to dress up in traditional clothing from their heritage (or in the colours of the flag) NO FOOTBALL SHIRTS!! There will be an international evening in the hall at 3.30pm on Tuesday.

Country of the week

This week we are learning about Italy.

This week we will also be:

- Turning our home corner into an Italian restaurant.
You could let your child help you lay the table and take orders for dinner at home!
- Practicing writing our names.
You could support your child at home by getting them to add their name to their pictures and letting them use paints, glitter and exciting writing equipment.
- Making pizza.
You could bake together using a recipe and measuring out ingredients.
- Making flags.
Talk to your child about what different countries you and their grandparents come from. Show them the flags of these countries and talk about the different colours.

Religious Education

In RE we are continuing our 'New Life' topic. This week we will be learning about when Jesus told his friends that he was going back to heaven and leaving the Holy Spirit with us. We will be thinking about the mission Jesus left us to spread his Good News and how the Holy Spirit can help us when we find things difficult.

At home you could encourage your child to be a good disciple by helping with jobs and tidying up after themselves. Don't forget to pray regularly with your children and talk about what they have learnt.

And finally...

Congratulations to Dylan on becoming a big brother! Mummy and Daddy welcomed baby Emma last weekend. Thank you for remembering us at this exciting time and donating lots of lovely paper and wrapping for our creative area!

If your child is starting Reception in September there will be a meeting for parents in the hall on Friday 19th June at 9.15am. Further details will follow in the post. Please do your best to be there as there will be lots of important information.
